Dear Ms. McHugh et al.:

I'm told that it would cost me $4.00 to borrow a copy of Juárez, su vida y su obra by Manuel del Río González. It is certainly quite reasonable for libraries to charge such a fee to cover their expenses in sending out books. I very much appreciate the fact that I can usually get books on interlibrary loan free of charge. Ideally I should pay the cost of mailing and handling. However, being a poor man, I would rather get a biography of Benito Juárez for nothing if I can, so instead of the book by Manuel del Río González, please get me one of the following books, if one of them is available free of charge. In order of preference:

In addition to a biography of Benito Juárez, please get me a copy of

(2) John L. Kelley, General Topology, (ordered 6665509)

if it can be obtained free of charge.

Thank you very much for your help, and thank you also for the other materials you've ordered for me.

Sincerely yours,

Ted Kaczynski

P.S. As usual, please send the books to Sherri Wood at the Lincoln Library. Thanks. — T.K.
